FUTURE

This Month we highlight Ms. Teena Gindraw, who lives on the 1200 block north 27th Street

Teena is a beacon of light and positivity, who embodies the spirit of Community service and pride.

Raised closely with her grandmother, Teena's upbringing consist of tradition and responsibility. Teena embraces her role as junior Block Captain with passion and determination. She organizes cleanup initiatives, orchestrates block parties and shares the importance of maintaining a clean and beautiful street with her neighbors.

When looking back from a early age, Teena eagerly joined her grandmother in the noble task of cleaning the block. She says early Saturday mornings turn into a joyous gathering, along with her cousins who all lent a helping hand without hesitation. What might had seemed like chores to others, Teena saw as an opportunity to bond not only with family but also with neighbors. This created lasting memories that will be forever cherished.

While being a full time, College student, she continues to make time to help her community. Teena is making a difference and setting a great example for others to follow. She is a leader! She is our future!

CREATE, SHARE, REPEAT

Do you have a creative skill, talent or passion that you would like to share with others? Like knitting, doing make-up, making a pie, building a birdhouse, creating music, drawing, etc.?

Mural Arts Philadelphia is looking for Sharswood community members who are interested in sharing their creative passions with friends and neighbors, youth and elders in the community as part of a community art hub that we are creating.

The goal is to create together and learn about people in the community — artists and others with creative ideas — who would like to help activate an art space in the neighborhood. This is the first step in envisioning a series of future public artworks in the neighborhood as part of the overall transformation that is occurring through the redevelopment of Blumberg-Sharswood Homes and the addition of new housing.

HOW TO BE INVOLVED

Join us at one of the sessions below. Art Hub is from 3:00-5:00 pm.

*Location outdoors In case of rain the event will be rescheduled.

- Tuesday, June 4, 2024 * Sanctuary Farm, 1622 North 22nd St
- Tuesday, July 9, 2024 Cecil B. Moore Library, 2320 Cecil B. Moore Ave
- Tuesday, August 6, 2024 * Webb Plaza, 2077 Ridge Ave

WHAT IT WILL BE LIKE

Each session will feature time for people to share about their own creative activities followed by a hands-on artistic workshop led by Mural Arts staff. This is a casual family friendly event. Stop by when you can or stay for the whole event. Light refreshments and snacks will be provided.

Each person who wants to share a practice should prepare a five minute introduction to their craft.

Vaux PATH Program

Joseph J. Peters Institute (JJPI)'s Partnership Addressing Trauma and Health (PATH) Program provides evidence-based trauma treatment in an outpatient program at the Philadelphia Housing Authority (PHA)'s Vaux Community Building. This unique integration of the work of PHA, other community-based PHA partners, and mental health trauma treatment services through JJPI will substantially increase access to a continuum of high-quality care for neighborhood residents.

Evidence-Based Trauma Therapy

Our therapists are trained to help children and adults experiencing a range of emotional, behavioral, and social challenges. We use trauma-informed care, focused on a collaborative, hands-on approach to addressing patterns of thinking or behavior that are often at the root of a person's difficulties.

Therapists begin with a comprehensive evaluation to understand how trauma is affecting each person. Then, we discuss treatment options and develop a treatment plan. Treatment will emphasize each person's strengths and ability to heal.

Our evidence-based treatments include:

Prolonged Exposure Therapy (PE)

A practice used with adolescent and adult survivors of trauma, which is designed to allow individuals to revisit traumatic event(s) at their own pace through a process that reduces the negative impact of traumatic memories, thoughts, and beliefs. As the traumatic memories begin to lose their emotional impact, individuals feel significantly reduced or eliminated suffering as they move forward in rebuilding their lives.

Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy (CBT)

An evidence-based practice that helps address distortions in thinking by changing the patterns of thinking or behavior that are often the root cause of a person's difficulties. This ultimately changes the way the person feels and experiences the world, reduces symptoms of depression and anxiety and increases happiness and overall functioning. The treatment takes a collaborative, hands-on, practical approach to addressing problems.

Trauma-Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (TF-CBT)

A treatment specifically developed for helping children and adolescents heal from trauma. TF-CBT builds on the strengths of the child and caregiver through counseling and learning, among other approaches, to reduce symptoms related to trauma.

Clinical and Patient-Driven Evaluation

We use several standard measures of clinical success to continually analyze our patient outcomes. Additionally, we recognize the critical importance of the relationship between each individual and their therapist; we engage participants in satisfaction surveys and incorporate feedback into our programs.
